

FIFE OPERA

Exciting plans for 2015

Come and join us!

Following the success of last year's production of Carmen, Fife Opera is delighted to announce the new show for 2015 - Gounod's masterpiece 'Faust'. The company's dynamic young musical director Alistair Digges is excited to be working on one of his favourite operas. "Faust is full of amazing music including the rousing Soldiers' Chorus, the stunning Jewel Song and one of the most beautiful tenor arias ever written, to mention just a few! I'm looking forward to another great musical adventure in Fife!" The company is delighted to welcome back Peter Easson to direct this story of corruption, lust, betrayal and redemption! Following on from last year's fantastic performance, the Fife Opera Junior Chorus will also feature in the show as the chorus of spirits. Find out how you can get involved below...

Join the Chorus Faust is a fantastic opera for the chorus so what are you waiting for? You don't need to have any singing or acting experience and there's no audition! Rehearsals are on Wednesday nights from the end of April through May/June, then Wednesday and Sunday nights from September until show week. The last two Wednesday nights in April will be taster sessions. Why not come along and give it a try! You might be surprised at just how much fun singing in Faust can be!

Principal Roles Auditions are open to all and will be held on the 26th/27th April. Fife Opera has a history of attracting very fine singers from all over Scotland as well as discovering local talent.

Junior Chorus This is a great opportunity for youngsters aged 9 to 14 to work on their singing and acting skills and to perform in a full production with orchestra. Rehearsals are held on Sunday afternoons after the summer holidays and are lead by specialist vocal coach Rosemary Nairne. Children will be selected from a workshop held in June.

If you're interested in coming along to one of our chorus taster sessions, would like to audition for a principal role, or to register for juniors workshop, please email
