

OPERA BOHEMIA

"One of the most exciting new opera companies in the country" (The Herald)

La Traviata Verdi

Saturday 27th August, 7.30pm

Kirkcaldy, Old Kirk

01592 741670

www.wegotickets.com

£15, £12 (conc), £6 (under 18)

Scotland's professional touring company, Opera Bohemia, returns with one of the world's most loved operas, La Traviata. Featuring famous musical numbers like the Brindisi and Sempre Libera, Verdi's masterpiece tells the tale of the famous courtesan Violetta, who commits the cardinal sin of falling in love. Scottish favourite, soprano Catriona Clark and rising star tenor Thomas Kinch, lead a cast of some of Scotland's finest home grown talent, including Aaron McAuley, making his company debut in the role of Germont, and star of Gianni Schicchi Andrew McTaggart who returns as Baron Douphol. This intimate and gripping new production by Douglas Nairne is not to be missed. Sung in Italian with English surtitles and accompanied by the Opera Bohemia Ensemble under Alistair Digges. Full cast list and further production information at operaboheemia.co.uk

New Arts Sponsorship Grants supported by the Scottish Government
in conjunction with...

Arts
& Business
Scotland

www.operaboheemia.co.uk