

Dunfermline Gilbert & Sullivan Society

Become a "Friend"!

As our Constitution makes clear, the Dunfermline Gilbert and Sullivan Society exists to advance the appreciation of the words and music of W S Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan, chiefly by "regular, public performances of their works". We also aim to support charitable causes from our funds and activities.

If you would like to help us achieve these aims, why not become a "Friend" of the Society? The current cost of doing so is a minimum of £36. This will entitle you to:

- be put on the Society's mailing list to receive all information about the Society's productions
- receive a priority booking allocation of two free seats of your choice for the annual opera performance, plus "Two for One" for other performances such as the Summer Concert
- receive an invitation to attend any social events that may from time to time be organised by the Society
- have your name recorded in the "Friends" section of our show programme.

To become a "Friend" please complete the form below and hand it, with your cheque, to any member of the Society or post it to:
