

OPERA BOHEMIA

The Pearl Fishers

by George Bizet

Scotland's professional touring company, Opera Bohemia returns with Bizet's The Pearl Fishers. In this moving tale set in Ceylon, two men's vow of friendship is threatened by their obsession with the same woman, a beautiful priestess, who battles to suppress her feelings of love in order to uphold her sacred oath. Directed by former Scottish Opera young artist Lissa Lorenzo, a star-studded cast is led by Scottish soprano Monica McGhee in the role of Leila. McGhee was part of the internationally successful opera group Amore. Welsh tenor Thomas Kinch returns to Opera Bohemia in the role of Nadir, with Scotland's Douglas Nairne and Michael MacKinnon as Zurga and Nourabad, completing the cast. The production features the company's first professional chamber chorus and is accompanied by the Opera Bohemia Ensemble (OBE), under the baton of Alistair Digges, for some performances, and for others in a special arrangement for solo violin and piano. With beautiful melodies, rousing choruses and opera's most famous duet, this promises to be a magical night at the opera. Sung in French with English surtitles, performance length 2 hrs.
