

Ladies Notes 2

4. If Well His Suit Has Sped

During intro gather as follows.

Jets in orderly fashion from middle cottage stage left. Sharks in dis-orderly fashion from pub. Two lines facing opposite wings. March towards and through each other to reach other side of stage in time for "Hail the Bridegroom"

Hail the Bridegroom moves:

Jets: in 2 lines, staggered. Front row 2 steps right, 2 steps back, 2 steps left, 2 steps forwards.

Back row 2 steps left, 2 steps forward, 2 steps right, 2 steps back

Sharks: in 2 lines, staggered. Front row pas de bas left, right arm waft over head and back to the left. Flowers to chest, spin to left, spin to right.

Back row do arm movements as above, but no pas de bas or spins.

Remember to be quizzical with the unusual raised ending to the music.

Dialogue:

React to what's going on. After "Then she accepts! My darling!" launch into unaccompanied "Hail the Bridegroom" with same moves as above. Extremely enthusiastic. Then keep acting until...

"-but it's me!"

"you!"

"Hail the Bridegroom" again, same moves but with a look of confusion.

3 Jets get Rose's book from wheelbarrow DSR and with great effort hold it up so she can see it on "what should a maiden do when she is embraced by the wrong gentleman?", then put it back in the barrow.

"and with her my blessing..."

Last time through of "Hail The Bridegroom". It grinds to a halt when Robin shouts at you. You all adjourn to the pub, some making faces at Robin, Sharks loudly blaming Jets and vice versa. Gwyneth take Rose's wheelbarrow off to the pub with you.
